1. Objectives

The Japanese government is offering the JDS¹ Scholarship Program to government officials in El Salvador as a way of providing them with opportunities for academic research at Japanese graduate schools.

The objective of the JDS Program is to support the human resource development of El Salvador. The program targets highly capable, young, government officers, who are expected to engage in formulating and implementing social and economic development plans. The successful JDS participants, accepted by Japanese universities to study on doctoral degree courses, are expected to become El Salvador's future leaders in the 21st century.

The JDS Program now calls for application for Doctor's degree.

2. Eligibility and Study Field

Eligibility Requirements:

The applicant must

- Be a Salvadoran national, and physically and mentally in good health
- As a general rule, be up to 46 years old as of April 1, 2026 (applicants born on or after April 2, 1979).
- Applicant must be a permanent or contracted employee of the target organization.
- Applicant must hold a master's degree.
- Applicant must not apply scholarship from other donors at the same time of applying for the JDS scholarship.
- Applicant should have published one or more peer-reviewed paper/s, in principle².
- Applicant should not be active in the military service

* Applicant need to take and pass all medical check-up prior to the interview by the Operating Committee (OC). This medical check-up is arranged by JDS Project Office. Applicant who cannot take or pass all medical check-up will be disqualified from JDS scholarship.

¹ JDS: Project for Human Resource Development Scholarship (former Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship)

² If you do not have published any peer-reviewed paper yet, you should have a concrete plan to publish one in near future.

Study Field:

The study field of JDS Program in El Salvador "Economic revitalization and employment expansion", has two (2) components as follows:

1-1. Transportation and Coastal Development, and 1-2. Industrial Promotion for the Economic Revitalization.

Sub-Program	Component	Maximum slot per year
1. Economic revitalization and employment expansion	1-1. Transportation and Coastal Development	1
	1-2. Industrial Promotion for the Economic Revitalization

3. Period and Modality of StudyStudy Period:

Maximum three (3) years of enrollment from September/October 2026, graduation is expected in September/October 2029.

Modality of Study:

As the JDS Program targets government officials, the JDS fellows are also accepted to stay in Japan for the first two (2) years for the course work and return to their countries while continuing research in the third year to obtain a Doctoral degree within 3 years. Otherwise, it is deemed difficult for competent civil servants to leave their country for an extensive period of time.

4. Application and Selection Process Schedule

Obtaining Approval of Acceptance from Your Academic Advisor (confirm deadline with JDS office)

- Contact your expected academic advisor of the applying university in Japan, discuss about your study plan, and request him/her to send an "Academic Referee Report" (Prescribed Form 3) directly to JDS Office in Tokyo Japan (apply-elsalvador.jds@jds21.com) via email before the deadline of application.

Preparing and Submitting the Application Documents

- Prepare your application documents carefully. See "How to Prepare Your Application Documents" in the next section of this Guideline for further details.
- Submit application documents personally by hand to the JDS Project Office in El Salvador (confirm deadline with JDS office). If delayed, application documents will be invalid and will NOT be accepted.

Medical Check up

- Applicants will be required to take a medical checkup at a designated hospital.

Selection by JDS Operating Committee (Date to be defined)

- Interview will be conducted by JDS Operating Committee (OC) members.
- If the total number of applicants exceeds three (3) persons, the application documents will be assessed by the OC before the interview.

Examination by the Applying Universities (June – August 2026)

- Candidates must take examinations of the applying universities. The arrangement for the examinations will be assisted by the JDS Office in Japan.
- Candidate who successfully pass the examination of the applying university will be JDS fellow.

Orientation and Departure (July – September 2026)

- The JDS fellow will participate in the orientation before departure in San Salvador, in July 2026, and leave for Japan in the middle of August or September 2026. Varies according to university calendar.
